“My mental state is calmer and my skin looks healthier.” Carolyn C. Denver, CO

“I’m 45. I don’t know what I would have done if I hadn’t found Femi-Yin.

I entered peri-menopause at 36. At 37, I had hot flashes that would melt iron, and I had every known hot flash trigger, and then some. I also had almost every other problem menopause can cause, the sleep disturbances, the irritability...but I’m holistically minded and taking traditional hormone therapy was out of the question.

I tried black cohosh, and it worked for a while (for the hot flashes), then it stopped working. I tried the soy supplements and most other herbal supplements touted to stop hot flashes. Nothing worked, and I thought I was doomed to hot flashes for the rest of my life...

Then one day, I saw an ad for Femi-Yin, stating it would correct hormonal imbalances, estrogen free, and stop the hot flashes and other menopausal problems.

By then I was so convinced that nothing would work for me that I didn’t order it for a while, but I became so desperate that I finally ordered a supply.

To my astonishment, Femi-Yin didn’t just help; it cured me of the hot flashes within days of the first dose. I’m still in awe. I thought my case was truly hopeless.

By the time I started taking Femi-Yin regularly, I had such serious hormonal imbalances that I was losing hair. I had a large bald spot the size of my palm- thank God that one didn’t show-near my neck line and a smaller bald spot on top of my head. The bald spots scared me completely straight, and I started taking Femi-Yin faithfully; I ordered Bao Shi and added it to the Femi-Yin regimen.

Bao Shi works as well for restoring hair as Femi-Yin does for menopausal problems! The bald spot on top of my head began growing new hair, my original dark blonde instead of white, and it kept growing. I now have no trace of the bald spot on top, and my hair has lift at the crown because of all the new growth. The bald spot at my neck line is vanishing, too. I believe that Bao Shi works even better when taken with Femi-Yin; together they correct those horrible hormonal imbalances that cause hair loss.

I look in the mirror and see a woman whose youth is being restored, naturally and safely with Femi-Yin and Bao Shi; I’m also pleased that Bao Shi is now available in women’s and men’s formulas, as well as the original Bao Shi.

We no longer must suffer mid-life changes. Femi-Yin and Bao Shi work safely and effectively, bar none, and I am living proof.

God bless you.

Your customer for life,
